

DICED PINEAPPLE SUPPLIES

We love quilts using techniques that make a difficult block easy and foolproof. The Diced Pineapple is that pattern! This "imitation" pineapple quilt will be the challenge that will showcase your creativity and is suited for using up your scraps. You'll have the option of making either a 68" X 68" throw or a 94 1/2" X 94 1/2" queen-size quilt. This quilt is so much fun to make that you'll probably want to make another one!

Whether you are a confident sewer or an experienced quilter, this class will explore endless creative possibilities as you learn how to mix all those scrappy fabrics with gorgeous results.

Supplies:

- Diced Pineapple pattern for the large quilt (can be purchased as a download at www.quiltingdaily.com)
- Basic sewing supplies
- Sewing machine, cord, foot pedal,  $\frac{1}{4}$ " foot (have working knowledge of your machine)
- Rotary cutter and cutting mat (at least 12" X 18")
- Clear ruler with  $\frac{1}{4}$ " measurements (at least 12" long)
- Thread for your machine and a pre-wound bobbin (neutral thread colors work best for piecing)
- Fabric scissors
- Seam ripper
- Glass head pins/pincushion

Fabric:

For 68" X 68" Throw:

- 13 fat quarters assorted dark prints*
- 3 yards assorted light or cream tone-on-tone prints
- 3/4 yard tan print
- 1 1/3 yards dark brown print
- Tri-Recs rulers
- 4 1/2 yards fabric for backing (not needed in class)

For 94 1/2" X 94 1/2" Quilt:

- 26 fat quarters assorted dark prints*
- 6 yards assorted light or cream tone-on-tone prints
- 1 1/2 yards tan print
- 2 1/2 yards dark brown print
- Tri-Recs rulers
- 9 yards fabric for backing (not needed in class)

*Large scraps from your scrap bin and/or fat eighths can also be used. Any dark prints with lots of color and contrast will make a beautiful quilt.
